LibGen is a unique concept in the category of eBooks, as this Russia based website is actually a search engine that helps you download books and articles related to science. It allows you to download paywalled content for free including PDF downloads for the stuff on Elsevier's Science Direct website. Even though the site continues to face legal issues due to the pirated access provided to books and articles, the site is still functional through various domains.

I am a second year grad from a undergrad B-School that has been climbing the ranks. No where near the Ivy's or baby Ivy's but growing. Graduated with a 3.4 (somewhat mediocre). I started off in the back office of a large custodian/investment bank, hated it and just needed an out to something that requires somewhat of a mental capacity.

I am currently 25 years old. I have 2 more years of university left and I am currently studying for the CFA exam. If my grades continue to be good, I plan on going to do applying for a masters degree at Imperial College or LSE. The problem is, although I am in a good place now, I had problems finishing university before due to numerous factors.
